1. This is your main trading area. Here you can see the actual market price of your chosen asset.
2. The top bar of the platform shows your basic investment info – your balance and your Profit & Loss.
3. The left part of your screen is dedicated to the list of available assets, grouped into 4 categories.
4. The right part of your screen is where the actual deals happen. Here you can buy and sell the asset.
5. On the bottom, you can follow your active trades, pending orders and trade history.

Take the financial markets by storm.

Experienced traders will tell you that the secret to making the Forex markets work for you is consistency. But never forget, that sometimes even the most ludicrous ideas might turn out to be much more valuable.

Select your trading instrument

Now it is time to finally open your first deal. Navigate to the Asset List and choose the asset of your desire. For the purpose of this guide, we have chosen EUR/USD.

	EURUSD	1.16304	0.68%	☆
	GBPUSD	1.30631	1.15%	☆
	USDJPY	111.512	0.43%	☆

Buy and/or sell

Turn your eyes on the Buy/Sell section on the right and choose whether you would like to buy or sell trading assets. If you believe, that the price will rise, you should Buy. On the other hand, if you think that the price of the asset will drop, you should Sell. Let's say that EUR/USD will rise, so we click on "Buy".

Here are several important details that should be taken into account. After clicking on "Buy", you will need to specify the volume you would like to trade with and review the information that the platform is giving you. In addition, clicking on the "Advanced" menu, will open a few more options such as "Take profit" and "Stop Loss". For more info, contact your account manager. Proceed with clicking on the "Invest" button.

Note: Deciding on Buy/Sell becomes much easier if you follow the latest market news and trends. Please visit our Resources Center.

Congratulations on opening your first trading position

Upon clicking on "Invest", a blue pop-up will appear, confirming your order.

Note: You can open several more trading positions in order to diversify your trading portfolio. Proceed with caution.

Stay always informed about your trades

Now that your financial portfolio is steadily growing, it is important to keep tabs on it and manage it accordingly. This can be done via the "Open Trades" section.
